

MARK T. McKINNON

McKinnon Economics
3117 South Delia Court
Gilbert, Arizona 85295
(480) 558-8870

Employment

- McKinnon Economics Consulting, Gilbert, AZ 2008– present
Economics Consultant
- research, analyze, and evaluate economic damages
 - perform mathematical and statistical calculations
 - contribute to the field of forensic economics
- Maricopa Community Colleges, Tempe, AZ 2005 – 2019
Mathematics Adjunct Faculty
- taught undergraduate mathematics courses
- Philosophy Cosmetics and Skin Care, Phoenix, AZ 2002 – 2004
Financial Analyst
- forecasted monthly sales for entire lines of products
 - created and/or improved processes for different departments
 - wrote various ad hoc queries for upper management
 - helped determine sales goals for regional sales managers
- Republic Western Insurance Company, Phoenix, AZ 1999 – 2002
Financial/Budget Analyst
- prepared financial and budget reports for upper management
 - performed flux analyses to pinpoint problems within accounts
 - projected ultimate payouts for various insurance programs
- Assistant Actuarial Analyst
- queried company information in AS/400 in preparation for analysis in Excel and/or Access
 - used company information to project ultimate losses and determine appropriate reserves for claims

Education

- Master of Science May, 2013
Texas A&M University, College Station, TX
Major: Mathematics
Emphasis: Statistics
- Master of Business Administration May, 2005
W.P. Carey School of Business,
Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ
Emphasis: Finance
- Bachelor of Science May, 1999
Grand Canyon University, Phoenix, AZ
Major: Mathematics
Minor: Physics

Professional Memberships

National Association of Forensic Economics

American Academy of Economic and Financial Experts

Publications

McKinnon, Mark. T. "Assessing Economic Damages in Personal Injury and Wrongful Death Litigation: The State of Arizona," Journal of Forensic Economics, Volume 29(2) 2021.