

THOMAS D. McKINNON

EDUCATION

B.A., Economics, Baylor University, 1961
M.A., Economics, Baylor University, 1963
Ph.D., Economics, University of Arizona, 1975

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

New Mexico State University
Las Cruces, New Mexico
Associate professor of finance (1989-1991)
Assistant professor of economics (1975-1983)

University of Louisiana-Monroe
Monroe, Louisiana
Assistant professor of economics (1973-1975)

Angelo State University
San Angelo, Texas
Instructor of economics (1966-1969)

McMurry College
Abilene, Texas
Instructor of economics (1965-1966)

CONSULTING EMPLOYMENT

Thomas D. McKinnon, Ph.D., Economics Consultant
Phoenix, Arizona (1991-present)
Las Cruces, New Mexico (1976-1991)
Litigation support services for attorneys

Bartley-McKinnon and Associates
Las Cruces, New Mexico (1981-1991)
Consulting & financial services for public utilities

CONSULTING ACTIVITIES

For public utilities:

Preparation of applications to New Mexico Public Service Commission for rate changes, certificates of convenience and necessity, and service area extension.

Cost of service analysis.

Determination of revenue requirements.

Design of utility rates.

Determination of appropriate rate of return on capital investment.

Expert witness testimony before New Mexico Public Service Commission.

For attorneys:

Litigation support for attorneys; several hundred cases since 1976 for both plaintiffs and defendants.

Qualified as an economics expert in state and federal courts in Arizona, New Mexico, and Texas.

Analyses and valuations of economic damages.

Appraisal of the fair market value of businesses, professional practices, and closely-held corporate stock.

Analysis of market monopolization, attempts to monopolize, and the effects of unfair trade practices.

Development and analysis of structured settlement proposals.

COURSES TAUGHT

Principles of economics

Business and economic forecasting

Microeconomic theory (upper-division & graduate levels)

Macroeconomic theory (upper-division & graduate levels)

Managerial economics

Industrial organization and antitrust economics

Managerial finance (upper-division & MBA levels)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

National Association of Forensic Economists

American Academy of Economic and Financial Experts

Omicron Delta Epsilon (International economics honorary society)

Beta Gamma Sigma (International business honorary society)

RESEARCH PAPERS AND PUBLICATIONS

- "Dedicated Portfolios and the Present Value of Lost Earnings: A Comment," Journal of Forensic Economics (Spring/Summer, 1994).
- "Illinois Brick and Antitrust Law Revision: An Update on Issues and Actions," paper, Southwestern Society of Economists (March, 1980).
- "An Analysis of Recent Trends in State Antitrust Enforcement in the Southwest," paper, Western Economics Association (June, 1979).
- "A Proposal to Analyze the Energy-Employment Relationships in New Mexico," Proceedings, U.S. Department of Labor Region VIII Energy Development Conference (July, 1977).
- "Long Run Economic Forecasting for a Water-Scarce Region," Baylor Business Studies (May, 1977).
- "The Regional Impacts of Resource Scarcity," paper, Southwestern Federation of Administrative Disciplines (March, 1977).
- "Outlook for the Regional Economy," paper, New Mexico State University Business Outlook Forum (December, 1976).
- "Beyond the Bicentennial: Economic Projections for Southern New Mexico," monograph, Center for Business and Economic Services, New Mexico State University (December, 1976).
- "Regional Input-Output Forecasting Model for Southern New Mexico: Part 1," New Mexico Business (November, 1976).
- "Regional Input-Output Forecasting Model for Southern New Mexico: Part 2," New Mexico Business (December, 1976).
- "Quality-Adjusted Price Indexes for High Fidelity Equipment," paper, Southwestern Social Science Association (April, 1976).
- "Hedonic Price Estimates for High Fidelity Equipment," monograph, Center for Business and Economic Services, New Mexico State University (March, 1976).